LOCATION

Oswestry, Shropshire's third largest town with a former Borough population of approximately 33,000 and town population of approximately 17,500, has a wealth of character and facilities to offer. A strong and friendly community, the town has an excellent range of food stores, operating banks, good range of national retailers as well as a wealth of specialist shops of good quality. The surrounding countryside also has much to offer, being on the Welsh Marches, there is the famous Old Oswestry Hill Fort and many other nearby attractions, too numerous to mention.

These premises are situated at the beginning of Beatrice Street, soon after it connects with Leg Street, close to the pedestrianised Albion Hill and the regularly held markets at the Bailey Head. The immediate vicinity is made up of a range of retail and other service businesses and these premises occupy a prominent and bold position within the street.
