LOCATION

Holywell (approximate population of 9,000) is a main retailing town within Flintshire with Tesco and Lidl supermarkets, a range of multiple retailers including Boots, Peacocks, the Post Office, Santander.

These premises are situated at the more busy intersection of High Street and Tower Gardens, with prominent frontage.

Flintshire Council now have the initiative of bringing back vehicle traffic flow into the High Street at Holywell, the removal of which many years ago was widely regarded as detrimental to the town. There are now positive expectations that this will substantially enhance trade and there are approximately 28 car parking spaces distributed along High Street in addition to the various public car parks linking through to the street long established.
